Workshop on Water, sanitation, and hygiene (WASH) in School Teacher Education

The Department of Environmental Science in collaboration with Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching organised a three-day workshop on Water, sanitation, and hygiene (WASH) in School Teacher Education during 29th -31st July 2019. Dr S Anbazhagi, Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Science was the Convener of the Workshop. Nearly 47 School teachers from 34 Schools participated in this workshop. The workshop was inaugurated by the Honourable Pro Vice Chancellor of Central University of Kerala on 29th July 2019, and felicitated by Project Head of PMMMMNMTT Prof.

(Dr.) Amruth G Kumar and Dean of School of Earth Science Systems Prof.(Dr.) Prathapa Chandra Kurup. Nearly 13 Sessions by experts from Central university of Kerala as well as from Health department of Kerala, Tamilnadu and Kerala Disaster Management Authority were handled. The topic of lectures delivered were safe faeces disposal, the correct way to wash hands, safe storage and treatment of water at point of use, personal hygiene, menstrual hygiene management and food hygiene. The attendance of the participants on all the three days of the workshop was maintained and was made mandatory. The participants were provided with a file folder, seed pen, recycled paper notebook, hand towel and a steel reusable water bottle. Hands on training on sanitation practices during disaster were also performed. The feedback forms from all the participants were taken and a very positive response was given by them. The valedictory function held on 31st July 2019 with the Honourable Vice Chancellor Central University of Kerala ,Prof.(Dr.) G Gopakumar as the chief Guest. Special address was delivered by the Registrar, Central University of Kerala, Dr. Radhakrishnan Nair and Project Head of PMMMMNMTT Prof. (Dr.) Amruth G Kumar. All the participants were provided with a group photograph and participation certificate. Each School was also provided with three handouts on hygiene practices to be displayed in their Schools. Dr S Anbazhagi, Convener of the workshop delivered the vote of thanks.
