

COVID -19 MANAGEMENT IN KERALA: FIRST 100 DAYS

- A free webinar -

*Prof. (Dr) K.R. Thankappan
Department of Public Health & Community Medicine
Central University of Kerala, Kasaragod (India)*

Please register at : <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSctNi9ILT6xQtWpFP8G5m7s4r14ESkIqoCUH-G2mm5qF6SOUQ/v>

ORGANISED BY:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH & COMMUNITY MEDICINE
CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF KERALA, KASARAGOD (INDIA)

When to con
Tuesday, 26 M
6:00 PM – 7:

How to con
<https://meet.google.c>

A report on the webinar on “COVID-19 Management in Kerala” First 100 days”

The Department of Public Health and Community Medicine, Central University of Kerala organised a webinar on “COVID-19 Management in Kerala” First 100 days” dated 26 May 2020 at 6 PM amid lockdown. Prof. KR Thankappan, Professor, Department of Public Health & Community Medicine, CUK, a senior public health academic and research delivered a 45 minutes PPT presentation through this webinar attended by 122 participants including students, alumni and faculty members of Central University of Kerala. In the presentation, Prof. Thankappan shared his insights on the phases of COVID-19 in Kerala, flattening of the epidemiological curve with respect of COVID-19, and explained on the factors contributing to the success in the management of COVID-19 in first 100 days and the way forward. The Webinar was moderated by Dr Sibasis Hense, Asst Professor, Central University of Kerala and the vote of thanks was rendered by Shri Prakash Babu Kodali, Asst Professor, Central University of Kerala, Kasaragod.