

BRICS and the Global Politics Platform

¹ Dr.Shameem C C, and Prof.K. Jayaprasad,

Department of International Relations and Politics, Central University of Kerala, Kasaragod.

Abstract

The BRICS is one the organization exhibits geographical diversities and economical imperativeness and different governmental system such as like authoritarianism, totalitarianism , democratic, and federal characters working together form as common interest in global politics. The study is highly relevant in the modern times especially the turmoil of US hegemonic interventions on global system. This group have great role to resist US hegemony in the global politics. Strong economic relation among BRICS countries reduces the chance of conflict and non geographical proximities are creating the possibility of a peaceful global atmosphere. This paper will analyses the role BRICS in the global politics to build peaceful atmosphere.

Key Words: BRICS, Global Politics, and Political Interdependence.

Introduction

The BRICS have diversely located in the different regions such as like Latin America, Africa, Asia, Eurasia, and South Asia. This regional accessibility enhances BRICS identity influencing in global system. The member states have good roles in different regions to build leading role for to make its own identity. The concerns and common interests are playing major role to resist US hegemony in the global system. This will elaborated in the different communiqué released by BRICS with the platform of different summits. The details are given bellow;

The first meeting of the BRICS grouping place between leaders from Brazil, Russia, India and China, in Yekaterinburg, Russia on 16 June 2009. At the first meeting the BRIC countries discussed the situation of the global economy and other pressing issues of global development, and also prospects for further strengthening the BRIC group.

