Sub: Terms of Reference for internship at IPH under the (Deciphering an Epidemic of Epic Proportion) DEEP projects.

We are pleased to accept your application and offer you an internship at the Institute of Public Health, Bengaluru with the following details.

Duration of Internship: 1st March 2021 to 30th April 2021.

Terms of Reference:

During your internship, you shall work in close coordination with the lead and co-lead of the Cluster on Chronic Health Conditions and Public Policy and report to the person appointed by the Cluster lead/co-lead;

- Broadly create a tobacco related profile for select Indian states (10);
- Curate tobacco production and consumption data for select Indian states (10);
- Explore trends over time and across datasets.

General Conditions:

The internship program shall be remotely undertaken and you need to submit your timesheet at the end of the month. A fixed stipend of Rs.5,000 will be paid per month by IPH on appropriate approval of the team lead and submission of timesheets in order to cover the internet and communication costs.

All the data that is collected will be the property of IPH and shall not be shared without the explicit permission of IPH. The data shared for the purpose of analysis will be kept confidential and handed over to IPH once the work is completed.

On successful completion of the assigned work with full attendance, a completion certificate will be provided by IPH.

Looking forward to a productive relationship.

Dr. Upendra Bhojani,
Director and and DBT/Wellcome Trust India Alliance Fellow,
Institute of Public Health,
Bengaluru.

I accept the above terms and shall abide by them.
